

The JCCGW is Proud to Present the Goldstein-Peled-Fiterstein Trio to Play Beethoven, Brahms, and Debussy at our Center this May.

For Immediate Release: March 29, 2013

Media Inquiries: JCCGW Chief Communications Officer, Adrienne Fierro, 301-348-3750; afierro@jccgw.org

ROCKVILLE, MARYLAND – The Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington (JCCGW) is pleased to present the Goldstein-Peled-Fiterstein Trio in the final concert of the 2012-2013 Polinger Artists of Excellence concert series on Sunday, May 19, 2013 at 7:30 pm at the Kreeger Auditorium at the JCCGW, located on Montrose Road, in Rockville, Maryland.

The Trio, bound by their Israeli roots, pianist Alon Goldstein, cellist Amit Peled, and clarinetist Alex Fiterstein, combine their special gifts and originality as soloists with their marvelous sense of ensemble and love of chamber music.

“The audience was rewarded with stellar playing from start to finish.” The Baltimore Sun, January 2012.

Alon Goldstein, pianist, is one of the most compelling artists of his generation, admired for his musical intelligence and dynamic personality. Mr. Goldstein’s artistic vision and innovative programming have made him a favorite with audiences and critics alike throughout the United States, Europe, and Israel. In 2009 he gave the world premiere of Lost Souls, the enthusiastically received concerto written by fellow Israeli, Avner Dorman, with the Kansas City Symphony and Michael Stern. He has been hailed across the country as a superb artist and exciting soloist with such orchestras as Philadelphia, St. Louis, Los Angeles, San Francisco and many others, and as a sensitive chamber music artist.

Amit Peled, a musician of profound artistry and charismatic stage presence, is acclaimed as one of the most exciting cellists on the concert stage today. Mr. Peled, recently described by the American Record Guide as “having the flair of the young Rostropovich”, has performed as a soloist with many orchestras and in the world’s major concert halls, including: Carnegie Hall and Alice Tully Hall, New York; Salle Gaveau, Paris; Wigmore Hall, London; Konzerthaus, Berlin; and Tel Aviv’s Mann Auditorium. Peled has been a frequent guest artist at prestigious festivals such as the Marlboro, Newport and Seattle Music Festivals, Heifetz International Music Institute, Schleswig Holstein and Euro Arts Festivals in Germany, Gotland Festival in Sweden, Prussia Cove Festival in England, the International Violoncello Congress in Spain, and the Kfar Blum Music Festival in Israel.

Alexander Fiterstein is one of the world’s exceptional clarinet players. A recipient of the 2009 Avery Fisher Career Grant Award, first-prize winner of the Carl Nielsen International Clarinet Competition and the Young Concert Artists International Auditions, he appeared with the Orchestra of St. Luke’s at Lincoln Center, Vienna Chamber Orchestra, Polish Kammerphilharmonie, Danish National Radio Symphony Orchestra, Israel Chamber Orchestra, Jerusalem Symphony, Tokyo Philharmonic and China National Symphony Orchestra. In recital, Mr. Fiterstein has appeared at the National Gallery of Art, Kennedy Center, 92nd Street Y, Carnegie's Weill Hall, the Louvre in Paris, and Suntory Hall in Tokyo.

Ticket prices are $40.00 for the general public; $35.00 for students and seniors (62+); $30 for JCC members. Note: DCJCC and JCCNV members also receive the member price.

The JCCGW creates a welcoming and inclusive environment, connecting the people of the Jewish community with each other, Israel, and the broader community. We inspire individuals of all ages and backgrounds to enhance their social, physical, intellectual and spiritual well-being through programs of excellence rooted in Jewish values.

For more information on this event visit our website, www.jccgw.org/concerts or call the Box Office at 301.348.3872.