

Third Cabin John Park Picnic

June 7, 2022

Continuing a tradition, the Men's Club held a picnic at Cabin John Regional Park. More than 40 members enjoyed camaraderie and hot dogs, hamburgers, grilled corn on the cob, watermelon, and all the fixings.

Once again Dave Gross secured the venue, Mike Baker was the major-domo, Mike and Eddie Chidakel arranged the logistics, and Stan Ginsberg managed the finances. Peter Jonas Garry Feldman and Ken Juris joined in to get things set up. Dave Fenster "organized" the grill squad of Neil Shulman, Marty Frank, Burt Bacharach, Gary Katz and Gary (where's the beef?) Feldman. They prepared a feast of hamburgers, hot dogs, and fresh corn.

Chuck Brownstein and Jay Doniger shucked a pile of corn and sliced more watermelon than could be consumed. On the side were coleslaw, potato salad, chips, pickles, and other fixings, very carefully arranged by Mike and Ken, with supervision of Isaac Bokman.

Sports and trivia director Sheldon Lehner, with expert assistance of Wayne Martin, and Corey Dreyfuss conducted the entertainment. Batting ringers Alvin Lieberman and Mike Baker hit whiffleball home runs. Bean bags were tossed. Sports and music trivia were contested, and heroic splashes happened in the balloon toss. Everyone had a great time.
