

IMAGINE

A Night Celebrating Civic Leadership
MONDAY, JUNE 10

Imagine What is Possible

Josh Bender,
Chief Executive Officer, Bender JCC

What does it mean to lead? Are leaders born, forged, or a combination of both? At IMAGINE, the Bender JCC's annual spring event (Monday, June 10), our community will celebrate and honor civic leaders who have dedicated their lives and careers to breaking down barriers, bringing about change, and positively impacting humanity.

This year's IMAGINE will feature a new and exciting fire-side chat between two of Greater Washington's most tireless and impactful changemakers: David Rubenstein and Ambassador Stuart Eizenstat (former Bender JCC Board President). The two civic leaders will discuss their decades-long friendship and the remarkable contributions they've each made to communities across our region, nation, and world.

We are thrilled to present the 2024 Benjamin Ourisman Memorial Award for Civic Achievement to Dana Marlowe (Founder and CEO, I Support the Girls). Dana's fight for equity began as a teenager advocating for the deaf community and has continued through her work with I Support the Girls, a nonprofit honoring the dignity of women in underserved communities by providing access to essential feminine products and items.

IMAGINE raises critical funds for Bender JCC scholarships, ensuring that financial limitations never become a barrier to joining our community and helping us welcome individuals and families of all abilities, backgrounds, and identities. Thank you in advance for helping us elevate civic leadership and supporting our efforts to "imagine" what's possible for our community when we lean into our shared values of kehillah (community), b'yachad (working together) and inclusion.
